sitcom Shenanigans

LET YOUR CREATIVITY SHINE!

Scenes and music from classic sit-com television shows like Allo Allo, Happy Days, Only Fools and Horses and Fawlty Towers come alive when participants from teams hop to the stage to record their set. As guests arrive, they secretly receive an identity of a well-known television character and are encouraged to locate other people from the same show.

OBJECTIVE

Each team receives a bag of props and a team pack and will be talked through producing a two to three minute scene that includes a story line of their show with information about their company.

BENEFITS FOR YOUR TEAM

An action packed creative session incorporating the whole team with instant engagement for all regardless of age or physical ability.

Develops your team's creative thinking and rewards their imagination!
